WHY WORK AT SAMUEL

Ongoing career progression opportunities

If you're interested in advancing to a supervisor or manager role Samuel wants to give you that opportunity! No pressure though, we also love drivers who really enjoy what they do and wouldn't change it for the world.

Not just a number

At Samuel we value our employees. We believe in building relationships with every single member of the Samuel team. There are many opportunities here, and we want to help you find the one that's right for you.

Shifts you can count on

We know that having consistent shifts and reliable hours is important to you – so it's important to us too, and something we're proud to offer. This includes the ability to be home every night or weekend and driving familiar routes if that's your preference.

Development opportunities

From on-site training to continuing education opportunities, we're always looking for new ways to help you grow and develop.

Reliability

We're proud to offer our employees competitive wages and benefits, steady amounts of work and unmatched industry expertise that comes from more than 50 years of metal transportation experience.
